Discover a section of Longdendale’s long-distance Trans-Pennine Trail enhanced for accessibility with viewing platform and ponds.

Access For All Route:
1. Start at the top of the car park to follow the weaving path up through the memorial wood.
2. Go through the gate and turn left onto the trail through the staggered barriers.
3. Continue to the viewing platform and ponds, and beyond to where the trail starts to rise.

The route was part of the first railway line between Manchester and Sheffield. It is now part of the Trans-Pennine Trail from Liverpool to Hull which is itself part of a 2,000 mile route through Europe to Istanbul.

The phenomena of the Longdendale Lights has attracted a number of sightings and theories in what has become known as the Haunted Valley.

Torside toilets host the first accessible Changing Place in the National Park.
