

Within this area of moorland strip between intakes is a braided hollow way, which leads to Pyeclough Farm, and to the site of a former outfarm show on historic OS maps

Building platform, foundations of small building and associated yard.