Enjoy moving at the pace of the river's flow in a landscape telling the story of former industry.

Local traffic on the road to Litton Mill.
Livestock grazing.

Access For All Route:

1. Take the path past the building and through the gate to the sculpture and the first bridge.
2. Continue on either path to the second bridge.
3. Continue down the dale following the stream to meet the road.
4. Turn right and follow the road and the River Wye upstream to Miller's Dale.

Alternative:
Start from the parking area before Litton Mill for a shorter route to Miller's Dale (1.6 km) or for reversing the route along Tideswell Dale. The upper loop from the car park is 1 km.

The wealth of wildflowers includes bloody cranesbill, a dramatic wild geranium, appearing in June below the climbing proving ground of Raven Tor.

Magma has baked the surrounding rocks, creating columns in the clays and transforming limestone into marble.

The River Wye powered two cotton mills downstream – Litton Mill and Cressbrook Mill.
